DIXIE'S SUNNY LAND.

Dear friends and fellow soldiers brave,
Come listen to our song
About the rebel prison and
Our sojourn there so long.
Our wretched state and hardships great,
No one can understand,
But those who have endured the fate
In Dixie's sunny land.

When captured by the chivalry,
They stripped us to the skin,
But failed to give us back again
The value of a pin;
Except some lousy rags of gray,
Discarded by their band;
And thus commenced our prison-life
In Dixie's sunny land.

With a host of guards surrounding us,
Each with a loaded gun,
We were stationed in an open place,
Exposed to rain and sun.
No tent, or tree, to shelter us,
We lay upon the sand;
Thus side by side, great numbers died
In Dixie's sunny land.

This was the daily bill of fare,
In that secesh saloon,
No sugars, tea, or coffee there,
At morning, night or noon;
But a pint of meal, ground cob and all,
Was served to every man,
And for want of fire we ate it raw
In Dixie's sunny land.

We were by these poor rations soon
Reduced to skin and bone,
A lingering starvation worse
Than death, you can but own.
There hundreds lay, both night and day,
By far too weak to stand,
Till death relieved our sufferings
In Dixie's sunny land.

We poor survivors oft were tried,
By many a threat and bribe
To desert our glorious union cause,
And join the rebel tribe;
Though tain were we to leave the place,
We let them understand
We had rather die than thus disgrace
Our flag in Dixie's land.

Thus dreary days and nights rolled on,
Yes, weeks and months untold,
Until that happy time arrived
When we were all paroled;
We landed at Annapolis,
A wretched looking band;
But glad to be alive and free
From Dixie's sunny land.

How like a dream those days now seem,
In retrospective view,
As we regain our wasted strength,
All dressed in Union blue.
The debt we owe our bitter foe
Shall not have long to stand,
We'll pay them with a vengeance soon,
In Dixie's sunny land.*

Now all the vengeance we desire,
Is the Union of the States
For which we went through blood and fire,
And dared the blackest fates.
We want no Negro government,
No Freedmen's Bureau grand,
But Peace and love and harmony
With Dixie's sunny land.

*Written before the close of the war. The last verse shows the feelings of the true soldiers, now that the war is over JAMES PEPPEL.

ELLIE RHEE,
OR
Carry Me Back to Tennessee!

Sweet Ellie Rhee so dear to me
Is lost forever more;
Our home was down in Tennessee,
Before dis cruel war.

CHORUS:—Then carry me back to Tennessee.
Back where I long to be;
Among de fields of yellow corn;
To my darling Ellie Rhee.

Oh, why did I from day to day,
Keep wishing to be free
And from my masss run away,
And leave my Ellie Rhee?

CHORUS.—Then carry be back, etc.

They said that I would soon be free
And happy all de day,
But if dey take me back again
I'll neber run away.

CHORUS.—Then carry me back, ect.

The war is over now at last,
De color'd race am free,
Dat good time comin' on so fast;
I se waitin' for to see.

CHORUS.—Then carry me back, etc.

The Clymer Soldiers' Convention.

About one hundred and fifty officers and soldiers from every section and almost every county of the State held a preliminary meeting at the Democratic Club Rooms, in this city, yesterday. Among the number present were Brevet Brig. Gen. Mathews, Brig. Gen. McCandless, Gen. Sweitzer, Gen. Davis, Col. Linton, Col. Witman, Col. Maish, Col. Ent, Col Awl, Col. Lyle, Col. Leech, Col. Owens, Col. Owen Jones, Col. Davis, of Berks, Lieut. Col. Metzgar, Maj. Kerr, Maj. Grant Wiedman, Maj. Dorsheimer, Maj. Hammond, Maj. Hale, Capt. J. A. Graham; Capt. Case, Capt. Richards, Capt. Chrissman, Capt. Chas. Garretson, Capt. M'Williams, Capt. Brockway, Capt. Woodruff, Capt. Dougherty, and many others whom we cannot now particularize, who have "done the State some service."

It was resolved to hold a Democratic Soldiers' State Convention on the first of August next, in Harrisburg, to be composed of seven delegates from each county in the Commonwealth. A committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements.

The indications are that the Convention will be a grand success. The reports given from the various sections of the State in regard to the feeling of the late soldiery of the Federal armies in relation to the two gubernatorial candidates was most favorable to Mr. Clymer and a speedy and complete restoration of the Union upon the basis of the Crittenden resolution of the Congress of 1861. Let every effort now be made to have every county in the State represented on the first of August.—Patriot & Union.

RATS! RATS! RATS!—The Lancaster (O:) Eagle reports that localities in Fairfield County are much intested by Norway Rats. Entire fields of corn have been destroyed by them, and in other instances acres were taken in a single night. Gardens suffer in like manner. They even attack and kill pigs, chickens, other fowls and small animals. Many farms are said to be swarming with them. As many as five hundred have been killed on a single farm in one day, by the usual force on a farm.

—The Yankees of Milford, Mass., have introduced political songs into the schools.

A SUMMER DAY IN HAYING.

BY B. F. TAYLOR.

Five o'clock and a summer morning! A silver mist hangs all along the streams, a few downy clouds are afloat and the landscape is heavy with dew. The cows turned out from the milking, are tinkling their way along the winding path to the wods; the robins are calling to each other in the orchard, and an enterprising hen in the barn is giving "the world assurance of"—an egg. Somehow, earth, on such a morning, looks as if it were just finished, the coloring not dry, the mouldings not "set;" without grave or grief in it.

Noting "the way of the wind," and remembering that the sun "came out" as it set last night, this is pronounced a good day for haying. So forth to the meadow; the farmer, the neighbors, and the boys, "armed and equipped," a young bare-footed commissary bringing up the rear, with earthen jug, and bright tin pail. Much talk of "wide swaths," and "mowing around," with a laugh and jest, beguiles the journey through the pasture to the field of battle. Coats and jackets fly like leaves in winter weather and moves the phalanx with stupid sweep through the tall, damp grass. One bends to the scythe as if it were an oar, and pants on in the rear of his fellows. Another walks erect all boldly up to the grass, the glittering blade the while curving freely and coily about his feet. The fellow in Kentucky jean expended his strength in basting on the way, and labors like a ship in a heavy sea, while the quiet chap in tow, that never said a word, is the pioneer of the field.

On the mere, toward the tremulous woods in the distance. One pauses, brings the rath to an "order arms," and you can hear the tinkling of the rifle, as it sharpens the edge of Time's symbols. Another wipes the beaded drops from his brow, and then swath notes blend again in full orchestra.—Onward still, they are hidden in the waving grass—all but a broken row of broad brimmed hats, that, rising and falling, seem to float slowly over the top of the meadow.

Ten o'clock and a cloudless sky. The birds and the maples silent and still; not a flutter in woodland or fallow.—Far up in the blue, a solitary hawk is slowly swinging in airy circles over the farm. Far down in the breathless lake sweep his shadow fellows. The long, yellow ribbon of road leading to town, is aquiver with fat. "Brindle" and "Bed" stand dozing in the marsh; the sheep are panting in the angles of the fences; the horses are grouped beneath the old tree; "Peco," the faithful guardian of the night, has crawled under the wagon for its shadow, now and then snapping in his sleep at the flies that hum around his pedant ear; the cat has crept up into the leafy butternut and stretched herself at length, upon a limb, to sleep; the canary is dreaming on his drowsy perch; and even the butterflies, weary of flickering in the sunshine, rest, like full blown exotics, on the reeds. The children of a neighboring school, all flushed and glowing, come bounding down the slope in couples, the old red pail swung up between; and the clatter of the windlass betokens "the old fallen bucket" already dripping up into the sun, with its brimming wealth of water.

Twelve o'clock and a breathless noon. The corn fairly curls in the steady blaze. The sun has driven the shadows around under the west and north walls; it has reached the noon mark on the threshold and pours the broad beams into the hall; the morning glories have struck their colors and a little vine trailed up the wall by a string of a shroud, shows decled symptoms of letting go. The hen winds for dinner, but its welcome note surprises the mowers in the midst of the meadow, and they'll cut their way out like good soldiers, despite their signal.

Back we are again to the field, aye and back too, upon the threshold of childhood. A change breath wafts to us the sweet, old fashioned fragrance of the new mown hay, and we are younger in memory, than we'll ever be again. The angry hum of the bees just thrown out of house and home, and the whistling quail, as she whirled timidly away before the steady sweep of the whetted scythes; and the shout of the children as the next stroke laid upon their summer hopes of the day; and the bell tone of the bob-o-links swinging upon the willows in the "Hollow." Can't you hear—don't you remember them all?

And have you forgotten the green knoll under the wide-spread beach—or was it maple? And how hungry you were, at the morning lunch, just from sympathy, though you hadn't "earned your salt" for a week? And the brown jug filled with pure water, and in those olden times, you know—the little black bottle with something stronger just "to qualify" it, as they said, that nestled lovingly together, amid the cool and dewy grass in the fence corner! We are sure you remember how magnificent loads went tumbling into the barn, you upon the top, and how they heaped the new hay into the empty "mows" till it was half as high as the latter—up to the big beam—up to the swallow hole; and how you crept up with a young group, and hid away in a dark corner, festooned with cobwebs, and played you were a "painter" or "catamount," and growled terrifically, to the unspeakable dread of your little brother, or cousin, or somebody. Or, how weary of the frolic, you lay upon the hay, and counted the dust sunbeams, as they streamed through the crevices of the loose siding, and wondered how they got out again, and how many it took to make a day, and passed your fingers through them to and fro, and marvelled that you felt nothing.

Many a time, you know, you crept through that same mow with Mary Grey—don't you remember Mary? She lived in the house just over the hill.—Have you forgotten how you went strawberrying together? You picked in her basket—don't deny it—you always felt happier than when you filled your own, though you never knew why. You had a queer feeling sometimes about the heart, though you never knew what. You have found it out all since, no doubt. And Mary—what has become of her? Why, "there is a reaper whose name is Death," that goes forth to the harvest in sweetest Spring and latest Autumn and deepest Winter as well, and Mary and Ellen and Jane were long ago bound up in the same sure bundle of life.

Seven o'clock, and a clear night. The shadows and the mist are rising in the valleys—the frogs have set up their chorus in the swamp—the fire-flies are showing a light off the marsh—the whip-poor-wills begin their melancholy song—a star blazes beautifully over the top of the woods, and the fair beings that people our childhood come about us in the twilight—the fair beings,

"Who set as sets the morning star, that goes
Not down behind the darkened west, nor hides
Obscured amid the tempest of the sky,
But melts away into the light of heaven."

OLD MONTGOMERY ALL RIGHT.—"The Boys in Blue"—They Disown the Disunion Candidate and pledge Themselves for the "Union and Clymer."—At a large and enthusiastic meeting of the "Soldiers' Union and Clymer Club of Norristown," held on Tuesday evening, June 27, the following preamble and resolutions were offered by A. M. Derr, of the 68th regiment, P. V. V., and unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, At the call of Gen. Hartranft, a body of men met at Pittsburg who styled themselves "The Soldiers' State Convention," and professed to speak the sentiments of the soldiers of Pennsylvania, yet disregarded the true interests of the country and the soldier, and endorsed the radical measures of the Disunionists in Congress, and the nomination of John W. Geary for Governor:

And whereas, We deem it expedient to declare more plainly and explicitly our sentiments in regard to these important matters therefore.

Resolved, That the Pittsburg Convention has no authority to speak in the name of the soldiers of Pennsylvania, and we believe they grossly misrepresented the sentiments of a majority.

Resolved, That said convention was a shallow device of demagogues, which could only deceive the most unwary—a knavish trick—and shows the lamentable fact that some soldiers have become like those whose company they kept, thus proving the truth of the proverb: "Evil communications corrupt good manners."

Resolved, That the country having no longer any need of our services, and having been honorably discharged, we have returned to civil life and resumed those rights of American freemen, which we had, for the time being, for our country's sake, voluntarily laid aside, and we cannot be cajoled, or driven, into sacrificing them to further the ambitious schemes of unprincipled demagogues, or the wicked designs of fanatics; but shall endeavor to hand them down unimpaired as we received them from our fathers.

Resolved, That, once more invested with the dignity of American freemen, we bow to no man nor submit to the dictation of any one, though his shoulders may have borne the eagle or the stars.

Resolved, That we shall oppose to the utmost the candidate of disunionism, radicalism and negro equality, the tricky politician, John W. Geary.

Resolved, That we will do our utmost to secure the election of the Union candidate, Hiester Clymer, who has at least the qualities of a true soldier—candor, sincerity and uprightness.

Resolved, That we concur in the resolution of the "Mifflintown and Patterson Soldiers' Clymer Club" recommending to the Clymer soldiers of Pennsylvania "the holding of a State convention in the city of Reading, on Wednesday, the first day of August next, for the purpose of placing ourselves before the people of Pennsylvania on a true Union and Constitutional platform, "and thus put it out of the power of juggling demagogues to misrepresent us, or make us involuntary instruments, for the accomplishment of their vile schemes."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be published in the National Defender, Norristown Register, and The Age, Daily News, and Harrisburg Patriot and Union, and all the Democratic papers throughout the State.

THE citizens of Trenton, N. J., have subscribed $30,000 to a race course.

NATIONAL CONVENTION OF UNBROKEN UNION.

Call for a Gathering from all the States and Territories---The Nation to go into Council---Voice of the people invoked.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—The following call has just been prepared, and has the approval of gentlemen of prominence in addition to those whose names are appended. It may, therefore, be regarded as possessing much political significance.

A National Union Convention of at least two delegates from each congressional district of all the States, two from each Territory, two from the District of Columbia, and four delegates at large from each State, will be held at the city of Philadelphia on the second Tuesday, the 14th of August next. Such delegates will be chosen by the electors of the several States who sustain the administration in maintaining, unbroken, the Union of the States under the constitution which our fathers established, and who agree in the following propositions, viz:

The union of the States is in every case indissoluble and is perpetual, and the constitution of the United States and the laws passed by Congress in pursuance thereof, supreme and constant, and universal in their obligation.

The rights, the dignity and the equality of the States in the Union, including the right of representation in Congress, are solemnly guaranteed by that Constitution, to save which from overthrow so much blood and treasure were expended in the late civil war.

There is no right anywhere to dissolve the Union or to separate States from the Union, either by a voluntary withdrawal, by force of arms or by congressional action; neither by the secession of the States, nor by the exclusion of their loyal and qualified representatives, nor by the national government in any other form.

Slavery is abolished, and neither can nor ought to be re-established in any State or Territory within our jurisdiction.

Each State has the undoubted right to prescribe the qualifications of its own electors, and no external power rightfully can or ought to dictate, control or influence the free and voluntary action of the States in the exercise of that right.

The maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially of the right of each State to order and control its own domestic concerns according to its own judgment exclusively, subject only to the constitution of the United States, is essential to that balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depend, and the overthrow of that system by the usurpation and centralization power in Congress would be a revolution dangerous to republican government and destructive of liberty.

Each House of Congress is made by the Constitution, the sole judge of the election returns and qualifications of its members, but the exclusion of loyal Senators and Representatives, properly chosen and qualified under the Constitution and laws, is unjust and revolutionary. Every patriot should frown upon all those acts and proceedings everywhere which can serve no other purpose than to rekindle the animosities of the war, and the effect of which upon our moral, social and national interests, at home, and upon our standing abroad, differing only in degree, is injurious like war itself.

The purposes of the war having been to preserve the Union and the Constitution by putting down the rebellion, and the rebellion having been suppressed, all resistance to the authority of the general government being at an end, and the war having ceased, war measures should also cease, and should be followed by measures of peaceful administration, so that Union, harmony and concord may be encouraged, and industry, commerce and the arts of peace revived and promoted, and the early restoration of all the States to the exercise of their constitutional powers in the national government, is indispensably necessary to the strength and to the defence of the republic, and to the maintenance of the public credit.

All such electors in the thirty-six States and nine Territories of the United States, and in the District of Columbia, who, in a spirit of patriotism and love for the Union, can rise above personal and sectional considerations, and who desire to see a truly National Union Convention which shall represent all the States and Territories of the Union, assembled as friends and brothers under the national flag, to hold council together upon the state of the Union, and to take measures to avert possible danger from the same, are specially requested to take part in the choice of such delegates. But no delegate will take a seat in such convention, who does not loyally accept the national situation and cordially endorse the principle above set forth, and who is not attached in true allegiance to the Constitution, the Union and the Government of the United States.

Signed by A. W. Randall, president; J. R. Doolittle, O. H. Browning, Edgar Cowan, Charles Knap, Samuel Fowler, executive committee National Union Club.

We recommend the holding of the above convention and endorse the call therefor: James Dixon, T. A. Hendricks, David S. Norton, J. W. Nesmith.

SOLDIERS' MEETING.

JOHNSON, CLYMER AND THE UNION.

A Mass Convention to Be Held in Harrisburg, August 1st.

In accordance with previous notice, a large number of honorably discharged officers and soldiers met at the Buehler House, Harrisburg, Pa., on Thursday afternoon, June 28th, to take into consideration the propriety of holding a State Convention of Soldiers and Sailors favoring President Johnson's restoration policy, and the election of Hiester Clymer and opposed to the Radical Congress, and the action of the Soldier's Convention held at Pittsburg.

On motion of Major Lewis, General Davis, of Bucks county, was unanimously elected as Chairman of the meeting, Gen Matthews, Colonels Linton, Lyle, Leech and Owens, Major Lewis, Captain Weaver and Lieutenant Boyer, were elected as Vice Presidents, and Captains C. B. Brockway and J. A. Graham, Secretaries.

The room not being large enough to hold the meeting, a motion prevailed to adjourn to the Democratic reading room.

After Gen. Davis had stated the object of the meeting, on motion, Colonel Ent, Captain Woodruff, Colonel Lyle, Gen. Matthews, and Adjutant Becker were appointed a Committee to report the time, place and plan of holding the proposed Convention.

While the committee was out, General M'Candless, on invitation, addressed the meeting.

The Committee reported the following preamble and resolutions:

THAT WHEREAS, Delegates regularly elected to the Soldiers' Convention which assembled at Pittsburg on the 5th inst., were excluded therefrom because they were opposed to the radical measures of Congress and the election of John W. Geary as Governor of Pennsylvania.

And whereas, The said Convention tried to commit the honorably discharged officers, soldiers and seamen of Pennsylvania to the fanatical and revolutionary policy of Thaddeus Stevens, Charles Sumner & Co., a policy which is in direct conflict with the objects of the war as set forth in the joint resolution of Congress of July 22d, 1861.

And whereas, The said Convention did not represent the true sentiments of the tried soldiery of Pennsylvania, who sustained the Federal Government on land and sea during the late rebellion; therefore be it

Resolved, That the honorably discharged officers, soldiers and seamen of this State who approve the constitutional, conservative and humane restoration policy of President Johnson, opposed to negro suffrage and in favor of electing Hiester Clymer Governor, will meet in convention at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, the 1st of August, 1866.

Resolved, That each county be entitled to seven delegates, and where a county has more than one member in the House of Representatives such county may send seven delegates for each member, the delegates to be selected by the honorably discharged officers, soldiers and seamen of the counties respectively favorable to the objects to be set forth in the general call to the State Convention:

On motion, the following named gentlemen were appointed a local committee to make arrangements for the State Convention.

Col. Asbury Awl, Capt. Wm, M'Carroll, Capt. Thomas Meloney, Surgeon Charles Bowers, Lieut. Wm. B. Carson, Sargeant Wm. D. Knighton, Privates Edward Lescure, Thomas Forster and Edward Finney.

On motion, it was resolved that Gen. McCandless, Col. Lyle, Col. Linton, Col. Davis, of Berks, Col. Embeck and Gen. Sweitzer, of Pittsburg, be a committee on transportation, to negotiate with the several railroad companies of the State as to the terms upon which they will convey the delegates and others wishing to attend the Convention and to advertise the result to the public.

On motion, it was resolved that Gen. Davis, Col. Linton, Col. J. Wesley Awl, Col. Jones, Capt. M'Williams and Capt. Brockway be appointed a committee to prepare a call for the Convention; and in addition to the representation called for, that they invite all soldiers and seamen sympathizing with the object in view to meet at the city of Harrisburg on that occasion.

On motion, the thanks of the Convention were tendered the Democratic Club of Harrisburg for the use of their reading room.

On motion, adjourned.

C. B. BROCKWAY,
J. A. GRAHAM,
Secretaries.

HOW THEY CARRY OUT THEIR PROMISES.—"Brick" Pomeroy was on a visit lately to Washington. In writing to his paper, he says:—"We looked in vain in the different departments for the one armed crippled, or veteran soldiers who were to be rewarded by the Republican party. The one-armed heroes are not popular. The left-hand writers are not there. Once in a while we found a poor widow in some of the departments—merely to build a newspaper article on for country consumption. But we found hundreds of negroes swarming about these offices—opening and shutting doors, as if those who passed through could not wait on themselves—we found these dusky lambs of Abraham answering bell calls everywhere—we saw them in the gallery of Congress, scratching their dirty heads, chewing pea nuts and smiling approval on their Radical deliverers. And we saw one-armed, one legged, and otherwise mutilated white soldiers selling apples, peanuts, papers and such stuff on the streets—generously provided for by—themselves."

THE CLIMBER.

A Campaign Paper.

The undersigned are publishing a campaign paper entitled "The Climber," the first number of which was issued on the 7th of July inst., and which will be continued until the Gubernatorial election in October.

This publication is devoted to the support of President Johnson's Restoration Policy and the election of such candidates as are openly in favor of sustaining that policy. It contains sixteen columns of matter and is filled with racy editorials and the spiciest articles of the campaign. No conservative politician should be without it.

It will be embellished with PORTRAITS OF PRESIDENT JOHNSON, Hon. HIESTER CLIMBER and other eminent patriots and statesmen, and will contain a number of humerous political illustrations.

TERMS:

Ten copies to one address, cash in advance, $5 00
Twenty " " " " 8.00
Less than ten copies to one address, 60 cts per copy.

Get up your clubs and send in your orders at once. No attention paid to any order unless accompanied by the cash. Persons getting up clubs should be particular to specify in their orders the name of the person to whom they wish the package addressed, as all the papers in the club will be sent to one person for distribution. CONTEMPTIBLE.

The reception of the flags of the Pennsylvania regiments was celebrated with great eclat, in Philadelphia, on the 4th inst. This was all right and proper, but, of course, the demagogues of the Disunion party had to mar the beauty of the occasion by the introduction of political partizanship. It seems that Gen. Hancock was selected by the Committee of Arrangements to assign the command of the parade to such officers as he might choose. Gen. Hancock made his selection of officers, but omitted in his list the popinjay Geary, which gave great offence to the Disunion Committee. Gen. Hancock was at once overruled and Geary was given the post of honer. Gen. Hancock insisted, however, that as Geary was a candidate for public office, his opponent, Hon. Hiester Clymer, who was the author of the resolution passed by the Legislature under which the flags were presented to the regiments and by which the very reception was authorized, should be invited to be present during the ceremonies. But the Committee feared that Clymer's presence would not leave Geary any advantage, and, therefore, refused to permit his invitation. How contemptibie such an act must appear in the eyes of all men who have any respect for gentlemanly decency, or who know in the slightest degree what constitutes an honorable motive. Let the soldiers remember how the popinjay Geary was foisted upon them at Philadelphia, against the wish of the hero Hancock, and how Clymer, the author of the Flag resolutions, was prevented from participating in the celebration, through the petty partizan jealousy and spite of the Negro-party politicians.

THE Disunion Geary County Committee are just now engaged in hurling bushels of documents at the heads of the people, expecting, doubtless, to frighten them out of their propriety by this ink and paper bombardment. Look out for white-washing pamphlets by the ton, for the Stevens-Geary party know full well that they need a good deal of bleaching to make them look comely in the sight of the people. Use the lime plentifully, boys! But lime can't do you much good, for St. Petre itself won't save you!

STATE CONVENTION OF JOHNSON "REPUBLICANS."

An informal convention of the Johnson Republicans of this State, was held at Sansom street Hall, Philadelphia, on the third inst. Robert L. Martin, of Delaware county, acted as temporary chairman. HON. HENRY W. TRACY, of Bradford, was elected permanent chairman, supported by a long array of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.—Among the delegates present we notice the names of Ex-Gov. Johnson, N. P. Sawyer, Colonel S. McKelvy, and Hon. James Lowry, of Allegheny; Hon. Chas. Williamson and J. C. Cummings, Delaware; B. Rush Bradford and Archibald Robison, Beaver; Col. J. R. Flanigen, S. S. Leidy, Henry Simons, and C. P. Cornman, Philadelphia; W. M. Allison, G. W. Strouse and W. W. Davis, Juniata; T. C. McDowell, Dauphin; D. P. Harper and J. W. Cowell, Bucks; P. M. Huckenbeier, Snyder; Col. Tulley and W. Darlington, Chester; A. F. Swann, Erie; J. B. Adamson, Mercer; C. Collum, Crawford; R. H. Foster, Centre; Thos. Schosch, Monroe; and a number of others. A State Central Committe was appointed, with Col. J. R. Flanigen, of Philadelphia, as Chairman. Hon. W. F. Johnson, Col. J. R. Flanigen, Hon. H. W. Tracy and Senator Edgar Cowan were elected delegates to the National Convention which is to assemble in Philadelphia, on the 14th of August. A resolution was also adopted fixing the 14th of August as the time, and Philadelphia as the place, for holding a Convention to determine what course to pursue in regard to a candidate for Governor.

A NICE little dodge, gentlemen, we catch you at, but it would be more creditable to you, though not so serviceable, if you would have a little higher regard for the truth! The record of Mr. Clymer which you are circulating, Messrs. Disunionists, is a prevarication from beginning to end.—Your object is to prejudice the soldiers and their friends against Clymer, by misrepresenting his course whilst in the Senate. Mr. Clymer, in no instance, voted against the interests of the soldier. He voted for the amendment to permit soldiers to vote in the army. We will bind ourself to pay to the chairman of the Disunion State Committee, one hundred dollars in gold, if we cannot show Mr. Clymer's name recorded in favor of that amendment. The record which you produce is that of 1864, when the Democrats refused to vote for the consideration of any measure introduced in the Senate, because the Speaker of the last Senate had usurped the chair, and those who voted to proceed with legislation, recognized his usurpation as a righteous act, which the Democrats would not and could not do. But after the election of a new speaker, the very same measures which the Democrats refused to consider so long as the chair was occupied by a usurper, were voted for by Mr. Clymer and his associates. Let it be understood, now and henceforth, that the record of Mr. Clymer, published by the Disunion State Committee, and now being scattered over the country, is a mere garbling of the proceedings of the Senate, and fails, in any instance, to inform the reader that it was only during the USURPATION OF THE CHAIR by the Speaker of the former Senate, that Mr. Clymer refused to vote for the consideration (mark you, not on the merits, but simply for the consideration) of any matter introduced in the Senate; and that after the usurpation was at an end, he (Mr. Clymer) did vote for the interests of the soldiers throughout, and even called some of the "Republican" Senators to account for not doing the same.—Gentlemen, we want to and will have fair dealing in this matter. You are trying to play an unfair game and you trust to popular prejudices to bear you out in the trick. But we appeal from your false and garbled statements to the record itself. We say that we will pay one hundred dollars in gold, to any man who asks us, if we cannot show by the record, that Hiester Clymer voted for the amendment to give the soldiers the right to vote in the army and that he also voted to increase the pay of soldiers in the service. Here is a standing offer, that will not be withdrawn during the campaign. What "Republican" would'nt make a hundred dollars in gold, if he could, especially at the expense of the BEDFORD GAZETTE! Come, now, don't be bashful, gentlemen!

WE ask attention to the call for a Johnson-Clymer Soldiers Convention, published in another column. The names of the most gallant officers in the service, are appended to the call. There is no doubt that the elite of the Pennsylvania soldiers will repudiate the popinjay Geary. Soldiers, read over the list of signers to this call and satisfy yourselves as to whether they are not worthy of your following. For instance, what say the 208th to the name of Gen. A. B. McCalmont?

THE skies are brightening! The blackness of darkness that obscured the political horizon, is fading into light; the rumbling of Thad. Stevens' patent thunder is dying away, and the lightning-bugs of Sumner's eloquence no longer flash their coruscations over Radical ignorance. The Abolition clouds that lately lowered so threateningly overhead, are breaking into gentle and refreshing showers of Johnsonjan Unionism and the grand old tree of Democracy, re-invigorated by a grateful political atmosphere, is taking a new growth, and will soon again shelter the people under its protecting branches. The opponents of Democracy are distracted and divided. The followers of Stevens pull one way, the adherents of Johnson another. Now, in "the winter of their discontent," it is "glorious summer" with the Democracy. Let us not fail to take the advantage of circumstances. Let us not be idle and indifferent, when nothing is wanting but exertion, to insure our triumph. Oh! Democrats, will you not work for victory, now that it is within your grasp?

NEXT week we will publish the opinion of Judge Strong of the Supreme Court, in the famous "Conscript" case, in which it is decided that Judges of Election are bound to take the votes of "deserters," if such "deserters" have not been regularly tried, convicted and sentenced by a court martial. Judge Strong and the majority of the Supreme Court, take the ground that election boards cannot try the question of desertion. This is exactly the ground upon which we insisted, last fall, that the votes of non-reporting conscripts must be taken. But the Abolitionists made a great out-cry against the right of "deserters" to vote, and succeeded in getting their election boards to reject the votes of all whom they chose to charge with "desertion," whilst by their clamor and threats they frightened the timid so that they did not venture near the polls. NOW, LET IT BE UNDERSTOOD that the LAW PROTECTS these men; and above all, LET IT BE KNOWN THAT THERE IS A MAN IN THE EXECUTIVE CHAIR AT WASHINGTON WHO WILL SEE THAT NO CITIZEN IS ROBBED OF HIS RIGHTS. Be firm and all will be well.

THE Disunionists are now circulating a document that undertakes to prove that the Southern people are not yet "fit for restoration." It is only necessary, in order to refute the stories published in this pamphlet, to refer the reader to Gen. Grant's report to the President, in which the Lieutenant General says that he believes the Southern people to be now loyal and prepared to resume their duties as citizens. Let this fact be industriously circulated by every Democrat, that GEN. U. S. GRANT thinks the Southern people "fit for restoration." Gen. Grant made a tour through the South, at the request of the President, and therefore ought to know what he is talking about.

THE Constitutional Amendment makes rather slow progress among the saints of the radical church. Gov. Curtin's circular doesn't seem to have the desired effect. Gov. Cox, of Ohio, and Gov. Morton, of Indiana, have permitted it to leak out that they are not in a hurry about convening the Legislatures of their States for action upon the Amendment, whilst Gov. Swann, of Maryland, contumacious fellow, refuses flatly to convoke the Legislature of that State, he being opposed to the Amendment and to the Radical policy generally.

SENATOR JAMES H. LANE, of Kansas, attempted to commit suicide, a few days ago, by shooting himself through the mouth. Upon the receipt of this news, a writer in the N. Y. Tribune, by way of obituary, stated that Lane had "died of Andy Johnson." As there is some prospect of Lane's recovery, the perpetrator of that ribald jest may some day have for an epitaph, "died of Jim Lane."

THERE is now scarcely a doubt that another "Republican" candidate for Governor will be put in the field in this State. The Johnson "Republicans" vow that they will not support Geary. Many of them will vote for Clymer, but others prefer to support a candidate of their own peculiar stripe. This renders Clymer's election morally certain.

GEARY is the candidate of the Negro Suffrage members of Congress. He is the pet and tool of Thad. Stevens. He who votes for Geary, votes for Negro Suffrage. No "Republican" can now say that he does not vote with his eyes open on this question. Geary and Negro Suffrage are inseparable, CRACK! Don't you hear it breaking? The back-bone of the Disunion Abolition party. Cowan, Dixon, Doolittle, Ex. Gov. Johnson and other leading "Republicans" are hard on the radical spine.

GEN COFFROTH OUSTED.

The Committee on Elections in Congress, hav made a report giving the seat now held by Gen. Coffroth, to his opponent at the election, Gen. Koontz. It was always admitted by the Committee tht Gen. Coffroth had a majority of the legal votes cast in the district, but the curse of the General during the preset session did not suit the purposes of he Radical Disunionists and they detemined to get rid of him. All right, gentlemen. The people will be a committee on your case, next October. Gen. Coffroth will probably hold his seat till within a few days of the adjournment. The following is from the Washington correspondence of the Age:

"The Committee of Elections agreed this morning to report in favor of ousting Mr. Coffroth, and giving his seat to the constant (Koontz). I understand that it is admitted that Mr Coffroth had a majority of the legal votes cast in the District, but the committee decided against him on a technical objection. They hold that the proof was insufficient to show that certain illegal soldiers' votes for Mr. Koontz were counted by the return judges, when in fact there was ample proof of fraud in that particular.

In reporting against Mr. Coffroth, the committee simply follow the precedent established in the cases of Voorhees and Brooks, and in addition to that, they were influenced, no doubt by a delegation of Radical leaders who have been here within the last ten days demanding the expulsion of Coffroth for political reasons. Their argument was, that if Mr. C. was permitted to retain his seat, he would carry the District next fall, and therefore in order to secure the election of the Radical candidate, he (C.) must be ousted. The House will probably adopt the report of the Committee, but the people of the Sixteenth District will surely rebuke it at the ballot box in October next."

"THE CLIMBER" (our campaign paper) is an entire success. We printed a very large edition last week which was speedily exausted, and some of the clubs which came in late, could not be supplied. This week's issue contains a fine portrait of President Johnson, which alone is worth the price of the paper. We hope to be able, in a few weeks, to give a portrait of our distinguished candidate for Governor, HON. HIESTER CLYMER. Every Democrat in the county should have the copy containing that engraving. Clubs are still wanting in a number of districts. Subscriptions will be received at any time during the campaign.

THE chalice from which Democrats were forced to drink, is now being commended to the lips of their persecutors. A few years ago the mobbing of the Democrats was all the rage.—Now the other side of the house" is getting a taste of the mobbing business. A few nights ago, some returned soldiers attacked the office of the York True Democrat, a rank Abolition paper who had slandered them because of their preference of Mr. Clymer for Governr. The other day the office of the Bonsboro' (Md.) Odd Fellow, another violent Disunion Abolition sheet, had the same experience. Whilst these thugs are only "chickens coming home to roost," yet we feel it our duty to discourage such proceedings, no matter whence they come, or against whom they may be directed.

THE Democracy of Fulton County met in County Convention on Saturday last, and nominated the following excellent county ticket. Prothonotary, John A. Ebinson; Treasurer, James Cooper; Associate Judges, Capt. Geo. White and J. W. Porter; Commissioner, Lemuel Hill; Dist. Att'y, John R. Donehoo, Esq., editor Fulton Democrat; Auditors, J. A. Harris, John Chestnut, jr.; Coroner, Dr. R. J. Hunter. The convention instructed for J. McDowell Sharpe, Esq., for Congress, and appointed Capt. W. Horton, Dr. Wishart and A. S. Smith, Esq., Congressional conferees; for Senator, Geo. A. Smith, Esq.; and elected Dr. McNeal, J. N. Sipes and G. W. Barton, as Representative Conferees, without instruction. Little Fulton is always right, but this fall she intends to do even better than heretofore.

"UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE, UNIVERSAL AMNESTY," is the platform of the N. Y. Tribune. That is, every late rebel in the South shall be restored to all his ante-rebellion rights, provided every negro in the United States is permitted to vote. In view of this proposition, isn't it a little inconsistent on the part of the Tribune and its Radical co-adjutors, to insist that the South is not "fit for restoration." If it is "fit," with all the darkies voting, it is certainly fit with only the white people as voters.

PORTLAND, Maine, was destroyed by fire, a few days ago. The loss is estimated at many millions. Hundreds of families are left homeless.—Public meetings are being held to raise contributions for the relief of the sufferers.

—Letters from Vera Cruz state, on what is said to be trustworthy authority, that General Bazaine has concluded an agreement with the Emperor Maximilian, by which the latter is to recieve from the French Treasury half a million of dollars a month for his most urgent expenses, besides having his Austrian Belgian troops paid by the French Government.

Special despatches, with attractive headings, announced in the Democratic journals with pride and rejoicing, that deserters cannot be disfranchised, and the same journals appeal to the "boys in blue" to vote the Democratic ticket. Can soldiers espouse the cause of deserters and vote for the active friends of deserters?—Franklin Repository.

Now, what's the use to lie, Colonel! We rejoice because no man can be punished as a "deserter" without trial.—We rejoice because the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has escaped the stigma you and your co-workers strove to fix upon her by striking down thousands of her best citizens simply because they were charged with (not convicted of, mark you) the offence of "desertion." The "boys in blue" are the champions of liberty. They have no heart in such oppression as Col. McClure would have visited upon thousands of his fellow citizens. Besides, had persons charged with (not convicted of) "desertion," been disfranchised, the "boys in blue" would have suffered, for many an honorably discharged soldier is not now in possession of his "discharge," and the want of that at the election would have enabled any knave to deprive him of his right to vote by simply charging him with "desertion." Therefore, the "boys in blue" will vote the Democratic ticket "and espouse the cause," not of "deserters," but of those who saved thousands of honorably discharged soldiers from being disfranchised by McClure & Co.

The Franklin Repository, edited by Col. McClure and that other old granny, Mrs. Swisshelm, takes us to task for defending the rights of citizens whom the Radical Disunionists tried to disfranchise because they were charged with being "deserters." Did the editors of the Repository never learn that "a man is always presumed innocent until proved guilty ?" If their ignorance hath this extent, it were useless to discuss the matter with them. We never defended any man who was convicted of "Desertion," we have only insisted that those who were charged with that offence, should not be punished without trial. We have defended a large class of citizens against the charge that they are "deserters;" we insist upon it that no man is a "deserter" until he has been convicted as such before the proper tribunal. We have defended citizens, not "deserters." But what has Col. McClure been doing?—He has tried his best to brand thousands of as good men as himself, with the foul word "deserter." He has lent himself to a scheme to mortage the liberties of the people, and this whilst professing to favor universal citizenship. Out upon such miserable knavery! Who so blind that he cannot discern the glaring hypocrisy of a man who bellows for universal suffrage and yet would disfranchise thousands of citizens of his own State.

WILL the Bedford Inquirer please copy the article in the Franklin Repository on the "Status of Deserters?" It is not right that the readers of the Inquirer should, from sheer ignorance, be permitted to follow the example of the ostriches of that paper who, when hard-pressed, stick their heads in the sand and fondly imagine that because they cannot see anybody or thing, neither can others see them. Therefore, let the article, written by Col. McClure, who argued the "Deserter" question before the Supreme Court, be laid before the readers of the Inquirer, so they may learn that he (McClure) says that under the decision of the Supreme Court, those persons called "Deserters," are on a perfect political and civil equality with other citizens. In plainer words, let the Inquirer tell its readers that the Attorney for its side of the "Deserter" question, gives up the case. Will it dare to have the fairness to do it?

TREASON! TREASON!—The New York Tribune has been converted to the "sympathizers with treason" in the person of Jefferson Davis. This is really alarming. Doubtless, before long, the whole "Republican" party will be clamoring for the release of "Mr. Davis." Loyal men, look out for breakers! The following is the article from the Tribune:

We welcome the news from Fortress Monroe of the assignment of spacious and comfortable apartments for the house-keeping of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Davis. By-and-by, the farce will have become too glaring, and then he will be let go. What is the use of persisting in a cheat whereby nobody is cheated? Mr. Davis is not to be tried—at all events, not with intent or expectation of convicting him—then why is he longer subsisted at the public cost? Let us have an end of the sham.

The resolutions of the Bedford County Democratic Convention, are as earnest in favor of unconditional Union with traitors as the resolutions of the same party were in favor of the independence of the rebels a few years ago.—Franklin Repository.

Not exactly, Colonel! The Democrats of Bedford County never favored any kind of Union with the Thad. Stevens party; if they had, they might have been in favor of the "independence of the rebels, a few years ago."

JOHNSON, CLYMER, AND THE UNION.

Call for a State Convention of Honorably Discharged Officers, Soldiers and Seamen of Pennsylvania.

The Soldiers Convention which met in Pittsburg on the 5th of June last, and which pledged their comrades in this State to the support of the radical measures of Congress, in opposition to the just and constitutional policy of President Johnson, and which promised their votes to John W. Geary, the radical candidate for Governor, misrepresented the sentiments of the great mass of the officers and soldiers of Pennsylvania. In order that a true expression of opinion might be had from the late defenders of the government in the field, and to counteract the injury attempted to be done to the cause of the Union, it was deemed advis ble by the late officers and soldiers of the Federal army in this State to hold another Convention.

A preliminary meeting of returned officers and soldiers, with this object in view, was holden on Thursday, the 28th of June, when it was resolved to hold

A State Convention at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, the first day of August proximo,

at 10 o'clock, A. M., to be composed of such honorably discharged officers, soldiers and seamen of Pennsylvania, as subscribe to the following doctrine, viz:—

1. Who are in favor of carrying out, in good faith, the joint resolution of Congress, adopted July 22d, 1861, which declared that, "This war is not prosecuted on our part in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution and to preserve the Union, with all the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired." These were the conditions of the bond the soldiers signed and sealed in blood with the government, and a refusal now to carry them out is a gross violation of a solemn agreement:

2. Who are in favor of restoring the States lately in rebellion to all their constitutional relations with the Federal Union as they stood before the war broke out, according to the humane and constitutional policy laid down by President Johnson;

3. Who are in favor of representatives from the South, loyal to the Constitution and the laws, being immediately received by Congress;

4. Who approve President Johnson's vetoes of the Freedman's Bureau and Civil Rights Bill:

5. Who are opposed to any interference, by Congress, with the rights of the States reserved by the Constitution, and who are opposed to the right of suffrage being conferred upon the negro:

6. And who are in favor of the election of Hiester Clymer, Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, the representative of the constitutional and conservative doctrine stated above.

Each county will be entitled to send seven delegates to the Convention; and where a county has more than one member in the House of Representatives, such county will be entitled to seven delegates for each additional member. The delegates are to be selected by the honorably discharged officers, soldiers and seamen of the counties respectively.

In addition to the delegates selected all other honorably discharged officers, soldiers and seamen who sympathize with the object in view, are invited to meet at Harrisburg on that occasion.

—In consequence of the increase of theft, vagrancy and drunkenness among the negroes in South Carolina, General Scott, commanding the Federal troops in that State, has issued an order directing that all men and women who neglect their labor shall be arrested and and made to work on the public roads, and those convicted of minor crimes shall be imprisoned and compelled to labor as convicts on the islands, from sunrise to sunset.

—Mr. Isaac Fowler, who was postmaster at New York a few years ago, but who becoming a defaulter was obliged to leave for foreign parts, has had noli prosequi entered in his case and is permited to return home without let or hindrance.

—The Conservative State Convention at St. Louis, Missouri, adjourned on Wednesday last, after electing four persons from each Congressional District, and nine from the State at large, as delegates to the Philadelphia Convention.

The London correspondent of the New York World is authority for the somewhat doubtful report that General Beauregard, who is in London on railroad business, has offered his services to Victor Emanuel, and that Mr. George N. Sanders was already on his way to join Garibaldi.

MERCERSBURG COLLEGE.—We have received a copy of the first annual catalogue of Mercersburg College, and are pleased to learn that this recently established institution has enjoyed a high degree of prosperity during the first term of its existence. At a special meeting of the Mercersburg Classis of the German Reformed Church, held in Bedford, Aug. 1, 1865, it was resolved to establish a good classical institution upon a broad and liberal Christian foundation. Arrangements were made to purchase the valuable property of the Marshall Collegiate Institute, Mercersburg, Pa., and a Board of nine Regents was elected to organize and set in motion Mercersburg College. The buildings were repaired and furnished, the services of able and experienced teachers were secured, and all the praiseworthy objects of Classis carried out with commendable zeal and earnestness by this Board. In less than a year we find a corps of five efficient teachers employed and the names of one hundred students enrolled. The course of study is thorough and complete, and the progress of the students has been very good according to reliable reports. A gentleman who attended the recent examinations of the various classes of the college, and the first exhibition of the Washington Irving Literary Society, given in the College Hall, Thursday, June 15, informs us that in all respects the students acquitted themselves in a manner that reflected great credit upon themselves and the institution itself. Especially are we gratified to learn that our Bedford boys came off with so much eclat on these interesting occasions. M. P. Heckerman and M. J. Hardman on Debate, D. N. Dittmar on Essay; J. F. Reed on Declamation; J. A. Reed on the Valedictory, are reported to have reflected great honor upon their native county and received their full share of fragrant boquets from the hands of the fair maidens whose presence graced the occasion. "So mote it ever be" with all the youthful sons of old Bedford.

We are pleased to learn that the prospects of the college are very good for an increased number of students at the next term, to commence about the middle of August, 1866. The charges are unusually moderate. Two hundred dollars covers all the expenses of the college year, including tuition, boarding, light, fuel and washing.

RESOLUTE BASE BALL CLUB.—A club of young players at Base Ball, has just been organized in this place, under the title of "The Resolute," with J. A. Reed, Pres't., N. J. Alsip, Sec'y, James Russell, Treas'r, and F. R. Schell, Field Captain. The first nine are, F. Schell, p., J. Jordan, c., H. D. Tate, s. s., W. Schell, 1 b., W. Cromwell, 2 b., E. Lyon, 3 b., J. A. Reed, l. f., F. Reed, c. f., N. J. Alsip, r. f.

ODD FELLOWS CELEBRATION.—The I. O. of O. F celebrated the Fourth in grand style at Woodberry. Dr. C. N. Hickok was the orator of the day.

A NOVEL GAME AT BASE BALL.—On Friday, 29th ult., a game of base ball was played by the Fat Nine of the Juniata Base Ball Club, of this place, against the Thin Nine of the same Club. A large crowd of spectators was in attendance, by whom the liveliest interest was manifested in the progress of the game. The "Fatties" came off victorious by a score of 53 to 32 for the "Leanies." The latter played very well; in fact some of the best players in the club belong to the lean persuasion, but the "Fatties" played so "heavy" a game that their opponents couldn't "make the riffle." This office was represented on both sides and we are, therefore, divided in our feelings as to the result of the game, between rejoicing at the success of the "Fatties" and regret at the defeat of the "Leanies;" in fact we are, on this subject, as the poet says, "a pendulum 'twixt a smile and a tear." We give below the particulars of the game as handed to us by one of the scorers:

THE FOURTH AT CHALYBEATE TROTTING COURSE.—The ever glorious Fourth was celebrated at the Chalybeate Trotting Course, by a large concourse of people. There were several trotting-matches, and a dinner at the house of W. Chenoweth, Esq. The Democratic Brass Band enlivened the occasion with their best pieces, and notwithstanding the rain every body seemed to enjoy the day. The dinner gotten up by Mr. Chenoweth and his estimable lady, was excellent, as all who partook of it can abundantly testify. The Band request us to state that they are under great obligations to Mr. Jonathan Bowser, of the Colerain Mills, who rigged up a wagon and conveyed them to the Course without charge. Jonathan is one of the most liberal and whole-souled gentlemen in the county. Long may he wave!

EPISCOPAL SERVICES NEXT SABBATH IN THE LUTHERAN CHURCH.—The Court House being now undergoing repair, the Episcopal services will be held next sabbath in the Lutheran church, kindly lent for the occasion, at 10½ a. m., and 4 p. M. In the morning the Rev. Barrow will preach on the subject of "Confirmation," and in the afternoon "Israel's bondage in Egypt." The Rev. Essick will preach in the evening.

QUARTERLY MEETING NEAR NEW PARIS.—The second Quarterly Meeting for Schellsburg Circuit, M. E. Church, will be held in the beautiful grove near New Paris, on the 14th and 15th inst. Rev. Thos. Barnhart, Presiding Elder, will do the preaching.

NEW CHURCHES.—The Episcopalians are about to build a new church, which, when finished, will be a splendid edifice. The Catholics, we understand, intend soon to build a new church on the lot of Rev. Heyden, immediately opposite the residence of O. E. Shannon, Esq.

IRVINE'S REGULATOR.—Cheap Shoes, Boots, Gaiters, and any thing in the shoe line; Glassware, Queensware, Perfumery, &c., &c., at Irvine's Regulator. Call and see.

A FRESH supply of Drugs, Perfumery, Whitman's Superb Confections, &c., &c., has just been received at J. L. Lewis' Drug Store, Julianna Street.

For the Gazette.

To the Democracy of Bedford County.

During the late canvass for the nomination for Sheriff, certain reports gained currency, which were calculated to injure my standing as a Democrat and which served, in a great degree, to bring about my defeat. Whilst I bow in entire submission to the decision of the county convention, I deem it a duty to myself as well as to the Democrats of the county, to refute the falsehoods circulated against me prior to the holding of the Delegate elections.

1. It was charged that I had declared that if I would be defeated for the nomination, I would leave the party. This was false from beginning to end. Let my course at the coming election be the proof of this. I ask the Democrats of the county to note particularly whether those who circulated this report, or myself will labor the most earnestly for the success of the ticket.

2. It was charged that my son, when at Pittsburg, had pointed out the hiding place of conscripts. I pronounce this an unqualified falsehood, though so trifling an electioneering scheme is hardly worthy of notice.

3. It was charged that I was in favor of "putting the wages of poor people down to seventy-five cents per day." This was a most unwarrantable charge and I defy any man to produce a spark of evidence to substantiate it. I am a poor man myself, and, therefore, would hardly be such a great fool as to strike at my own interest.

4. It was charged that I was a "Know Nothing." In answer to this I say that I have all my life voted the Democratic ticket, except in the spring of 1855, eleven years ago, when I voted against the Democratic nominations for township officers. Immediately afterward I publicly acknowledged my error and strove with all my might to induce others who had committed the same mistake, to retrace their erring steps. During the last eleven years I have voted with, and in my humble way, worked for the Democratic party. This I intend to continue to do to the end, the prophecies of certain parties to the contrary notwithstanding. In conclusion, I return my sincere thanks to those who stood by me during the recent canvass, and call upon all my friends to rally with me to the support of the Democratic ticket. Respectfully,

ISAAC D. EARNEST.

Bedford Tp., July 9, 1866.

ST. CLAIR TP.,
7th Mo., 5th day.

FRIEND BENJAMIN:—The national Union ticket which thee presents, pleases us well. The negro-suffrage ticket on the other side has too many of the ring-streaked, spotted and speckled on it—the off-spring of what we call amalgamation. Thy neighbors here are for the President's plan of early restoration and early peace. The conservative republicans (by them I mean the sensible ones) and the Democrats are together on that subject. The Radicals are for Stevens' plan, that is, restoration when it suits them, and strife in the meantime. The Thad-ites are pretty thick on their county ticket. Thee would do well to expose this; for a black streak (politically speaking) runs up the back of every man on it.

Thee would do well, also, to put a few questions to these candidates in plain words, such as these:

Is the President's plan, or Stevens' plan, thy plan for restoration and peace?

Is the late amendment offered to the Constitution, which in short, is negro-suffrage, or no representation, approved by thee?

Shall negroes vote in Pennsylvania?

These questions should be answered fair and square. A refusal to answer will be well understood. We are tired of names out here, and don't care whether we be called Democrats, Conservatives or what. We are for men, "honest and capable," who will give us harmony and peace—reasonable prices for all articles of trade—no broken banks—a gold dollar for a dollar note—no mixing of white and black men—the negro in his place, to be educated if he can be, and protected in person and property, with the Union whole and entire, and the Constitution without any tinkers about it. On thy ticket we find all such men, and thee can put down on thy returns one hundred for its majority in this township, in October. More, perhaps, again.

THY FRIEND.

MARRIED.

BITTER WINE OF IRON.—An exquisite impregnation of dry Spanish Wine with the activity of Calisya Bark, and the most energetic of all the ferruinous salts. Citrate of Magnetic Oxide of Iron. It has a vinous flavor, very grateful to the palate, is without chalybeate taste and will not discolor the teeth.
It excites languid appite, gives zest to food, improves digestion, increps the strength, steadies the circulation, takes off muscular flabbiness, removes the pallor of debility, gives firmness and precision to the action of te nervous system, with power to endure fatigue and resist disease.
Magnetic Citrate of Iron is new and peculiar, differing from the ordinary Soluble Citrate, in containing an equivalent to Protoxide of Iron, in place of the Ammonia. It is neutral, tasteless, without astringency, as prompt and energetic as the Chloride, and unlike that, induces no local inflammatory action or headche.
Calisaya Bark is pre-eminent among vegetable tonics, has no equal as a strengthener or restorative, nor rival as an antiperiodic. Retail in $1 and $2 bottles, Quarts and Gallons for dispensing.

1866! PROSPECTUS 1866!
OF
"THE AGE,"

The only Democratic Daily Journal in Philadelphia.—Great Improvements and Great Inducements.—Union, Restoration, and Constitutional Liberty.

The publishers of THE AGE respectfully call attention to the Daily and Weekly issues of their popular journal.

The Daily Age contains the latest intelligence from all parts of the world, with articles on Government, Politics, Trade, Finance, and all the current questions of the day; Local Intelligence, Market Reports, Prices Current, Stock Quotations, Marine and Commercial intelligence, Reports of Public Gatherings, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, Legal Reports, Book Notices, Theatrical Criticisms, Reviews of Literature, Art and Music, Agricultural Matters; and discussions of whatever subjects are of general interest and importance.—Besides special telegrams, it has all the dispatches of the Associated Press from every part of the United States, and the news from all parts of Europe, brought by the steamers, is instantly telegraphed from the point the steamers first touch.

Terms of the Daily.—One copy, one year, $9.00; six months, $4 50; three months, $2 50; for any less period, at the rate of one dollar per month. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Daily, thirty cents per quarter, or one dollar and twenty cents per annum, if prepaid.

The Weekly Age will be a complete compendium of the news of the week, and besides the leading editorials from the Daily, will contain a large amount of interesting matter prepared expressly for the weekly issue. It will be in all respects a first class family journal, particularly adapted to the Politician, the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, the Family Circle and the General Reader, having, in fact, every characteristic of a live newspaper. At an early day will be begun an intensely interesting serial, by one of the most popular and fascinating authors, and it is also the intention to publish, from week to week, in the course of the year, three or four of the best and latest novels.

Terms of the Weekly.—One copy, one year, $2; five copies, one year, $9; ten copies, one year, $17.50; twenty copies one year, $33. To clubs, where the papers are sent to one address, the following reduction will be made: Ten copies, one year, $16 50; twenty copies, one year, $30. A copy will be furnished gratis for each of ten, or more, to one address, for one year. Payment required invariably in advance. Postage on the Weekly, five cts per quarter, or twenty cents per annum, is prepaid.

☞ The Weekly Age will be the great campaign paper of the Democratic Conservative Party of Pennsylvania, and will earnestly support the President in his patriotic efforts in behalf of Union, Restoration and Constitutional Liberty.

☞ The above terms will be rigidly adhered to. Specimen copies of the Daily and Weekly sent gratis, on application at this office. Please write the name and address plainly, and specify distinctly whether the Daily or Weekly is ordered.

ALLEGHANY MALE AND FEMALE SEMINARY,
RAINSBURG, BEDFORD COUNTY, PA.
J. W. HUGHES, } Principals and Proprietors.
J. A. STEWART. }

The Spring Quarter of this Institution will open TUESDAY, APRIL 10th, 1866.

This Institution is very pleasantly situated in Friend's Cove, 8 miles from Bedford, the terminus of the Huntingdon and Bedford Rail Road, and 24 miles from Cumberland, a station on the North Central Rail Road. Rainsburg is a small, quiet, and exceedingly healthy town, in the midst of beautiful scenery, and sufficiently removed from the influence of large towns and cities to render it a most desirable location for a Literary Institution. Its inhabitants are moral and religious, and there are few temptations to vice, idleness or dissipation; situated in a rich agricultural section, this Institution for Young Ladies and Gentlemen, is decidedly the cheapest in the country. It is organized on the most approved plan of the best Institutions of the land; its main object is, to impart sound learning. All branches, Scientifical, Classical and Ornamental, taught. The mental and moral culture are carefully attended to, and (without sectarian prejudices) a due respect for religion is inculcated both by precept and example. "In things necessary, unity; in things doubtful, liberty; and in all things, charity." For circular and information, Address HUGHES & STEWART.

SEND FOR A CIRCULAR.

The ingredients used in compounding Mishler's Herb Bitters are not kept secret by the Proprietor. Send for a circular and you will learn the medical properties of all the articles used in its preparation; also in the manner in which they operate on the system, and much other valuable information. If you are afflicted with disease send for one of Mishler's Herb Bitters Circulars; read it carefully, profit by the hints it contains, and you will be placed on the sure road of recovery.

MISHLER'S BITTERS
WILL CURE ALL DISEASES OF THE SKIN!

Diseases of the skin are numerous and, with but one or two exceptions, may all be traced to impurity of the blood. In many persons this impurity is born in the system; while others acquire it through improper treatment of scores of diseases. Under this head may be classed—

1st. Scrofula.—This disease is hereditary and is transmitted from generation to generation. It is caused by a transgression of the laws of nature, both moral and physical; in other words, it is caused by vice. Acting as a latent poison, it reduces the vitality of the blood, and weakens the depurating organs, so that they fail to discharge or cast out the impurities that are continually generating in the system. A person physically pure acquires gonorhœa, or some other secret disease; he undergoes a course of mercury, the disease is dried up, and the patient pronounced well. Vain delusion. The complaint is not cured, it is channel is only diverted. Instead of making its appearance outwardly, it acts on the internal organs, and scrofula, which is bequeathed from father to son, is the result. Many persons who are perfectly free from all immorality and vice are afflicted with scrofula. They are suffering for the sins of their fathers and laboring under the curse inscribed inscribed in the Book of Books. "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

To cure this dreadful complain it is necessary that the blood should be thoroughly purified, all the organs of the body brought into a healthy state of action, and the system braced up and strengthened by invigorating tonics. Look at the articles used in compounding Mishler's Bitters; see the array of purifying and invigorating medicaments, and say whether there is an article in the whole list of medicines that equals it. We here emphatically assert, without fear of contradiction, that Mishler's Bitters will Cure all kinds of Scrofulous Diseases.

It purifies the blood, it strengthens the internal organs and aids them to perform their natural functions, it is a stimulant and a tonic and it will cure Scrofula.

2d, Running Sores and Ulcers.—Running sores and ulcers invariably indicate a scrofulous taint. They are caused by the efforts of nature to discharge the impurities of the blood. Many persons afflicted with running sores and ulcers succeeded in drying them up and think they are cured when the skin grows over the sore. They are, however, "but making bad worse," for the impurities that were discharged from the system through the medium of the sore now act internally and cause innumerable diseases and often death. The only true and sure cure for all running sores and ulcers is Mishler's Bitters, a continued and persevering use of which will most certainly effect a permanent cure.

3d. Salt Rheum.—Salt Rheum is a vague, indefinite, though, popular term given to almost all the non-febrile eruptions of the skin which afflict adults. It is generally an eruption of vesicles in small, distinct ulcers, accompanied with a smarting, tingling sensation, with a tendency to creep or spread over the adjoining surface. Mishler's Bitters are a sure cure for this disease.

4th. Pimples and Blotches.—Pimples and Blotches on the skin are always a sure sign of impure blood. Although never dangerous, except in cases of carbuncles, they are very disagreeable.—Often we will see the most handsome features rendered hideous by great blotches and pimples, and instead of the pleasing look which should irradiate the human face we see nothing but disgusting corruption; for pimples and blotches are nothing but the corrupt accumulations of the system expelled through the medium of the skin. The use of Mishler's Bitters will force these corruptions to be discharged through the natural channels, and thus cures all kinds of pimples and blotches. Ladies who desire a fair complection, free from pimples should bear this fact in mind.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND ART.—New Volume begins January, 1866.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE is, as its name indicates, a selection from other magazines and periodicals. These selections are carefully made each month, from the entire range of foreign Periodicals. In this respect it is entirely unlike other monthlies, and has no rival. The following are some of the works from which selections are made:—

London Quarterly,	Revue de deux Mondes,
British Quarterly,	London Society,
North British Review,	Bentley's Miscellany,
Pop. Science Review,	Cornhill Magazine,
Saturday Review,	Fraser's Magazine,
Leisure Hour,	Temple Bar,
Westminster Review,	Chambers' Journal,
Dub. University Magazine,	Edinburg Review,
Art Journal.	London National Rev.

We have also arranged to secure choice selections from the FRENCH, GERMAN AND OTHER CONTINENTAL PERIODICALS, translated especially for the ECLECTIC, and it is hoped this new feature will add greatly to the variety and value of the work.

EMBELLISHMENTS.

Each number is embellished with one or more Fine Steel Engravings—portraits of eminent men or illustrative of important events.

Volumes commence in January and July of each year; subscriptions can commence with any month.

TERMS: $5 per year; Single numbers, 50 cents. Five copies, $20.

For Blackwood and any two of the Reviews	10 00
For Blackwood and three of the Reviews	13.00
For Blackwood and the four Reviews	15.00

The interest of these Periodicals to American readers is rather increased than diminished by the articles they contain on our late Civil War, and though sometimes tinged with prejudice, they may, still, considering their great ability and the different stand points from which they are written, be read and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every creed and party.

Premiums to New Subscribers.

New Subscribers to any two of the above periodicals for 1866 will be entitled to receive, gratis, any one of the "Four Reviews" for 1865. New Subscribers to all five of the Periodicals for 1865, will receive gratis, any two of the "Four Reviews" for 1865.

Subscribers may also obtain back numbers at the following reduced rates, viz:

Blackwood from September, 1864, to December, 1865, inclusive, at the rate of $2.50 a year.

The North British from January, 1863, to December, 1865, inclusive; the Edinburgh and the Westminster from April, 1864, to December, 1865, inclusive, and the London Quarterly for the year 1865, at the rate of $1.50 a year for each or any Review.

This will insure promptness in the reception of the January number. In remitting please state the fact that the subscription is a renewal.

ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 6, 1866, Messrs. TICKNOR & FIELDS began the publication of a weekly journal entitled

EVERY SATURDAY:
A JOURNAL OF CHOICE READING,
SELECTED FROM FOREIGN CURRENT LITERATURE.

Much of the best literature of the day is found in the English and Continental magazines and periodicals; and it is the design of the Publishers of this new journal to reproduce the choicest selections from these for American readers, in a form at once attractive and inexpensive. The publishers believe that such a journal, conducted upon the plan which they propose, will be not only entertaining and instructive in itself, but interesting and valuable as a reflex of foreign periodical literature of the better class.

EVERY SATURDAY is intended for town and country, for the fireside, the seaside, the railway and the steamboat. Its plan embraces Incidents of Travel and Adventure, Essays Critical and Descriptive, Serial Tales, Short Stories, Poems, Biographies, Literary Intelligence, etc., in connection with judicious selections from the admirable popular papers on science which are constantly appearing in foreign periodicals. The value of these papers arises from the fact that scientific subjects, however harsh and dry in themselves, are here treated in so graphic and picturesque a style as to charm the reader while instructing him.

It will be, in short, the aim of its publishers that EVERY SATURDAY shall commend itself by its freshness and variety to all classes of intelligent and cultivated readers.

EVERY SATURDAY will contain each week thirty-two large octavo pages, handsomely printed in double columns, with an engraved title.

TERMS.

Single Numbers. 10 cents.
Subscription price $5.00 per year, in advance.

MONTHLY PARTS will be issued, containing 128 pages each, handsomely bound in an attractive cover, price 50 cents. Subscription price, $5.00 per year, in advance.

CLUBBING ARRANGEMENT.—Subscribers to any of the other periodicals published by TICKNOR AND FIELDS will receive EVERY SATURDAY for $4.00 per year in advance.

TICKNOR & FIELDS, Publishers,
124 Tremont Street, Boston.

NOTICE TO THE PRESS.—EVERY SATURDAY will be furnished to the press, for clubbing, at $3.50 per year; and any paper copying this prospectus, with editorial notices, will be entitled to an exchange.

1866. TAKE UP YOUR CLUBS.
THE NEW YORK NEWS,
The only Recognized Democratic Newspaper published in New York,
DAILY, SEMI-WEEKLY, AND WEEKLY.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEW YORK NEWS has battled against despotism for four years of blood and terror in assertion of the sanctity of the Constitution. A patriotism sufficiently broad to embrace both sections has been its only guide, and it refers now with honest pride to its record to show that it has not turned to the right or the left under all the violence of arbitrary power.

True to its principles as THE NEWS has been through the reign of terror, it challenges public confidence in its honesty and independence for the future.

The political transition of the present day opens to THE NEWS a new and wider field of usefulness. Standing now as it always has, on the inviolability of the Constitution, according to the interpretation of the strict constructionists, it presents a rallying ground for all in both sections, who are friends of a generous conservatism. As a true and tried exponent of sectional amity it occupies a position which makes the fitting mediator in holding up to the party of order in both sections, interests and principles that gave breadth and vitality to their alliance. As an intersectional agent, devoted to freedom of election, to trial by jury, to the sanctity of the habeas corpus, and opposed now, as for four years of terror it has been, to the centralization that dares to trample on the rights of States, North or South, THE NEWS places itself as a candidate for support before the great body of this once free people.

The circumstances of the moment make the dissemination of the principles of THE NEWS a duty of individual patriotism. Every man who concurs in its doctrine must if he be certain a true sense of freedom, do so in no spirit of indifference, but rather with the earnestness of a high trust. Justified, nay bound in his love of liberty to do so, the proprietor places the canvass he makes here of the public generally in the hands of those men who give him the approval of their consciences as his individual agents. Every reader of the THE NEWS cannot avoid the conviction of duty which is here pointed out as the ground of the request, that he urges his claims for a wider support upon all of his friends and neighbors who give their earnest sympathies to the cause of "strict construction," intersectional conciliation, and all the rights of the citizen under the system set up by our fathers of liberty regulated by law. The proprietor of THE NEWS calls, therefore, upon true and good conservatives throughout the country to discharge, to their convictions of political right at this great crisis in the country's fortunes, the duty of giving to the influence of his paper, daily, semi-weekly, or weekly, the wider power for good which it seeks here through the service of its individual supporters.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
ACTS GENTLY,

Is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL,

See Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the U. S., of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or the Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy."

FROM THE
MANUFACTURING CHEMIST
IN THE WORLD.

I am acquainted with H. T. Helmbold; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

[From the Philad'a Evening Bulletin, Mar. 10.]

We are gratified to hear of the continued success, in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist. His store, next to the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his Office and laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class.

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are

GENUINE PREPARATIONS,

And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are too ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

A WORD OF CAUTION.

Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, or until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.

This is no new remedy. It has been used for a number of years in Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania, and has, wherever known, acquired an unprecedented reputation for curing the various diseases for which it is recommended.

So apparent is its usefulness, and so remarkable has been its cures, that it is fast superceding every other remedy for those diseases. The afflicted can rely upon its doing as much for them, and in many cases more than any other remedy now before the public.

It is recommended and prescribed in the practice of a large number of the most intelligent and able physicians of Maryland. It is used and considered an indispensable household remedy by a large portion of the first families of
